

"Plants for People" is an international initiative, spreading knowledge of the benefits of plants in a working environment.
www.plantsforpeople.org

Plants for People The planned integration of plants into building design benefits both clients and occupants. A non-profit making organisation, Plants for People communicates scientific findings into the health/welfare/economic benefits of plants in the living environment.

CPD title:

How Plants Can Benefit the Internal Environment

Seminar details

Up to date academic and scientific findings on how plants benefit the environment and their ameliorating effects on:

- Air quality
- Reduction of common ailments, sometimes linked to SBS
- Concentration and productivity
- Reduction of stress levels

Cost saving factors:

- Absenteeism
- Energy conservation

Case histories

Plant specification and maintenance

Q&A

Duration

1 hour maximum plus 15 minutes Q&A

Also available

Notes from seminar with bibliography and other reading

Dossier of research and case studies

Leaflet: 'More Human with Plants in the Workplace'

CD-ROM: 'Green Light for Plants'

Specification guide

Areas covered

- London
- South East
- South West
- Southern
- Wessex

Contact details

Colleen Smith

Plants for People
Catherine Chambers
6 - 8 Catherine Street
Salisbury
Wiltshire
SP1 2DA

T 01722 335858

F 01722 336898

E pfp@jerviscom.com

www.plants-for-people.org